Year 7 Wednesday Review Period 3.00 – 3.40 pm
SUMMER TERM 2009

Review period for Year 7 is all about aiding students' academic progress and enabling them to begin to develop key skills.

The Review Period is an official part of the school day, although students are not required for the whole of the session every week. This flexibility allows us to meet with the whole form or with individuals, as the need arises. Appointment forms will be provided for individual interviews but PLEASE KEEP THIS FORM FOR REFERENCE in relation to all Review Period commitments during the term. The Review Period provides quality time with the Form Tutor to review and evaluate the achievements of your son/daughter. Targets will be set to identify strategies that will enable further progress to be made.

Dear Parents

April 2009

YEAR 9 REVIEW PERIOD 3.00 – 3.40pm WEDNESDAYS
SUMMER TERM 2009
(Term 3)

As you are aware, Year 9 students are working on their ILP (Individual Learning Plan) during Review Period.

This is a working document that the students will use to record targets for their learning and progress; they can track their own academic progress, produce a CV and develop their key skills.

During Term 3, students will be setting their third and final target and typing up their personal statements.

Listed below is a timetable that all Form Tutors will follow. Tutors will identify the students to be interviewed during Monday registration and it will be written in their Planners for you to be aware.

1st half term of Term 3

The Individual Learning Plan is an ongoing personalised electronic learning plan all students are required to access, mapping learning outcomes across all subject areas throughout Key Stage 4. The e-ILP is accessible both at school and at home – all that is required is access to the Internet and The Appleton School website.

In addition to the above, your son/daughter may be provided with further help in a designated Support Group, in which case we would contact you separately.

I hope this proves helpful. We know that the students benefit from the programme provided.
